COURSES TAUGHT

Graduate Courses

Event History Analysis
 World Population Problems
 Work and Careers
 Social Inequality of Health
 Demography of Aging
 The Life course & Health

Undergraduate Courses

Social Statistics
 Sociological Methods
 Introductory Sociology
 Health at the Crossroads of Social Change

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Professional Association Memberships

American Sociological Association, European Population Association, Gerontological Society of America, International Network on Healthy Life Expectancy, International Union for the Scientific Study of Population, Population Association of America, Society for Longitudinal and Life Course Studies, and the Southern Demographic Association

Professional Awards

2021 Honorable Mention for the Distinguished Contribution to Scholarship in Population Award, ASA Sociology of Population Section

2019 Outstanding Mentor Award, Section on Aging and the Life Course, American Sociological Association

2017 Matilda White Riley Award. NIH, Office of Behavioral and Social Science Research. Matilda White Riley award honors individuals whose research has contributed to behavioral and social scientific knowledge and/or the application of such knowledge relevant to the mission of the NIH.

2016 IHIS Research Award presented by the Minnesota Population Center in recognition for outstanding work using IPUMS data (with Joseph Lariscy and Robert Hummer)

Fellow of The Gerontological Society of America
