Brief bio.

After completing my BA in English at Notre Dame, I went to Chile as volunteer, through a Notre Dame program. That was 1979. The dictatorship was in full swing. I took a special interest in human rights issues, especially, the detenidos-desaparecidos and their families. I became a permanent resident of Chile, and I made my living as a teacher.

Inspired by the ideal of making the world a better place, I joined the Jesuit order in 1992. I was sent on mission to the desert north of Chile, to Uruguay, to Dallas and to the Brazilian Amazon. I have now left the order to care for my aging mother in Austin.

Work in progress:

The life and times of my father, who died in 2003. Entitled Clayton's tale.

A scholarly paper entitled: The Origins of Chile's MIR, A call to armed insurrection, 1965-1970, projected to be chapter 1 of my dissertation. This paper has been accepted for publication in the Annals of The Eugene Scassa Mock Organization of American States (ESMOAS) Program conference, held November 2019, at St. Mary's University in San Antonio, where it was presented.

A scholarly paper entitled: Prevention or Provocation? How U.S. Support for Christian Democrats Radicalized Chile's MIR, 1964-1970. This paper, projected to be chapter 2 of my dissertation, was presented at SECOLAS conference in Austin, in March 2020, and has been accepted for publication in the upcoming edition of The Latin Americanist.
