The Rome Study Program (RSP) offers the opportunity to earn three or six credit hours at UT.

Please indicate which class/classes you will take in Rome:

_____ - ITL 320 – Advanced Italian
Prerequisite: ITL 611
The course is taught in Italian.
You will improve your skills in writing, speaking and reading in Italian, as well as increase your level of comprehension. You will review grammatical structures and elaborate the more complex ones. Furthermore, you will expand your knowledge of Italian culture through the use of educational videos and through live interaction with Italians whom you will encounter in Rome.

_____ - ITC 330 – Rome Sets the Stage: Historical and Social Changes in Italy
(Antonella D. Olson, Professor of Instruction)
Prerequisite: None
The course is taught in English.
You will acquaint yourself with Rome and a passage of time in the Eternal City through frequent field trips. You will interactively explore and analyze Italian history and social changes from the unification of Italy to the new immigration and current events. Guest speakers such as writers and movie directors will enrich your knowledge.

_____ - ITL 365 – Conference Course (Olson)
Prerequisite: ITL 320 and/or any other upper-division Italian course
The course is taught in Italian. Content will be discussed individually with students.

Suggested sequence of courses in Italian in relation to the Rome Study Program:

For Students on Financial Aid: Please be aware that it is required that students take SIX credit hours in the summer in order to be eligible for financial aid. If students can only take THREE credit hours in Rome, they should take the remaining THREE credit hours in the second summer session at UT.

Please write a brief paragraph in which you specify the reason/s for going and comment on your ability to adapt to foreign ways of living (i.e. a host family) and to immerse yourself in a new cultural environment:
