Approved courselist for six additional hours in Philosophy of Mind and Language minor

PHL 303 Human Nature
PHL 303M Mind and Body
PHL 323M Philosophy of Mind
PHL 332M Interpretation and Meaning
PHL 344K Intermediate Symbolic Logic
PHL 358 Philosophical Logic
PHL 365 Topic 2 Intro to Cognitive Science
PHL 375M Topic 3 Wittgenstein

LIN 306 Intro to the Study of Language
LIN 313 Language and Computers
LIN 350 Topic 2 Language and Thought
LIN 350S Word Meaning
LIN 353N Natural Language Processing
LIN 372J Meaning and Message
LIN 372L Syntax and Semantics: The Structure and Meaning of Utterances

PSY 305 Intro to Cognitive Psychology
PSY 333N Cognitive Development
PSY 333P Child Language
PSY 337 Psychology of Language
PSY 337P Language Processing
PSY 355 Cognition
PSY 355C Development of Categories and Concepts

NOTES:
1 PHL 303M or PHL 323M is required under line item #2 in the Philosophy of Mind and Language minor. Whichever course was not used for line item #2 may be taken as an option for the six additional hours required for the minor.
2 PHL 323M has an enforced prerequisite of six hours of previously completed Philosophy coursework. Majority of seats are reserved for majors during the initial registration period. Any remaining seats will be released to all students who meet the prerequisite by the first day of class.
3 Pre-req: upper-division standing
4 Pre-req: PHL 313, 313K, or 313Q
5 Pre-req: nine hours of previously completed Philosophy coursework
6 Pre-req: LIN 306
7 Pre-req: PSY 301 with a grade of at least C

The Philosophy Department cannot guarantee nor reserve seats in other departments that are listed on this courselist. Students must follow LIN and PSY policies and course pre-reqs for the courses listed in the Philosophy of Mind and Language minor.