

Schusterman Center for Jewish Studies
Application Form and Instructions for the Appleman Graduate Fellowship

Due date:

Ongoing. Please note that applications will be reviewed until all budgeted funds for a given academic year have been disbursed.

General Eligibility:

Any student enrolled in a graduate program at UT who undertakes research on any Jewish topic in the course of their graduate career.

Purpose:

The Appleman Graduate Fellowship supports conference participation and research (including travel) on Jewish topics, and language training relevant to pursuing Jewish Studies research.

Amount:

Up to $750

Instructions:

Submit this completed form and all necessary supporting documents listed on the website.

Semester in which funds to be used: ☐ Spring ☐ Summer ☐ Fall

Information and Authorization:

Name _____

EID _____

Email _____

Department _____

Current Mailing Address _____

I authorize the Schusterman Center for Jewish Studies Graduate Fellowships Committee to review my UT-Austin academic record.

Signature _____ Date _____