

THE CENTER FOR RUSSIAN, EAST EUROPEAN AND EURASIAN STUDIES,
THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS, AND THE LBJ SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS
PRESENT:

ADORNMENT AND HISTORY: A SYMPOSIUM ON GEORGIAN ARTS AND CULTURE

Wednesday, February 16, 7pm, GRG 102

Film Screening: "Chef in Love" - (Academy Award-nominated 1996 for Best Foreign Film). A Georgian-French tragi-comedy.

Thursday, February 17, 4pm, Texas Union, TX Governors Room 3.116

Julie George, PhD Candidate in the School of Government, will give a talk entitled, "Separatism, Nationalism or Imperialism?: Old and New Perspectives on Georgia's Secessionist Wars."

Saturday, February 19, 6-8pm, Texas Union, Santa Rita Suite 3.502

Opening reception for the exhibition "Adornment and History: Ancient Georgia – Crossroad of Europe and Asia."

Sunday, February 20, 12-6pm, Texas Union, Santa Rita Suite 3.502

Exhibition "Adornment and History: Ancient Georgia – Crossroad of Europe and Asia."

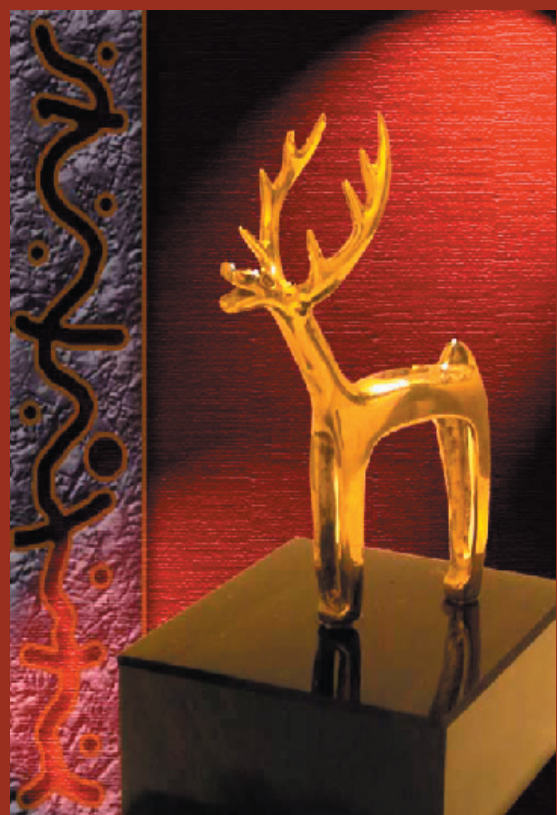

Sunday, February 20, 2pm, Texas Union, Santa Rita Suite 3.502 (alcove) Khatuna Doliashvili, PhD Candidate in Sociology, and Eric Barrett, Graduate Student in Slavic and European Studies, will present an Introduction to the Georgian Alphabet.

Monday, February 21, 10am – 6pm,
Texas Union, Santa Rita Suite 3.502

Exhibition "Adornment and History: Ancient Georgia – Crossroad of Europe and Asia."

Monday, February 21, Noon, Texas
Union, Chicano Culture Room 4.206

Maka Dvalishvili, President of the Georgian Arts and Culture Center in Tbilisi, will speak on the Art and Culture of the Republic of Georgia.

For more information, please contact CREEES at (512) 471-7782