Hello,

Please follow the instruction:

Please post two or three words associated with "SCHOOL" in your native language, either Korean or English by Sunday at 11 p.m.

Read others' postings.

Make comments to at least two group members' postings by next Wednesday at 11 p.m.

Use your native language (either Korean or English) when you make comments.

Comments can be simple statements, questions, or a brief analysis between your response and others' responses (compare and contrast).

To identify your class, start your postings with the class name: "KOR507" for First-Year Korean II, "KOR612" for Accelerated Second-Year Korean, and "KOR330" for Advanced Conversation in Korean.

For example:

KOR330, table, teacher, students
(class name), (your responses)

Optionally, if you want to discuss something about the topic, you can use "CHAT" online with your friends in the group.

It is due on this Sunday 11pm. You are also supposed to make at least two comments to your group members' postings in your NATIVE language by next Wednesday 11pm.

Also, please answer to your group members' questions, if you have. There is no time restriction for answering.

1. 한국이 가장 필요한 것은 ...(What Korea needs most...)

2. 미국이 가장 필요한 것은 ...(What the U.S. needs most...)
What Korea most needs is land. What the US most needs is a better education system.

여러분이 큰 도시에서 길을 걸어가고 있습니다.

You are walking down the street in a big city.

What and/or How would you do in this situation?

슈퍼마켓에서 (자신의) 아이를 때리는 엄마를 본다.

You see a mother in a supermarket slap her child.

Teresa Kim

If a stranger was approaching me with a big smile, I would smile back and probably see if they try to talk to me, if not I would just keep walking... unless they were super duper creepy. If they were creepy I might run away.

Teresa Kim

Joseph Hoang

I would smile back and nod my head as a sign that I acknowledged them. I wouldn't say anything unless they said something to me first.

Geon Kim

저는 그냥 무시하고 지나간 것입니다. 만일 그 사람이 말을 걸어오고 환경 흔들면 제의 행동은 상황에 따라 4가지 패턴으로 나-pills 것입니다.

1) "길 좀 불쾌하다." A) 알려준다
2) "너 혹시 00학원 00안 000?" A) 맞으면 받아워한다. 아니면 아니라고 말해주시고 상대방이 어색해 할 수도 있기 때문에 빨리 사라져 준다.
3) "여기 왜 사람이 몰려 본다." A) "안 사요.
4) "오징 사람들이 많아요~" A) "화해 대 nhé요."

If I see a mother in the supermarket slap her child, I would further observe what the situation was about. I would of course be shocked as well.

If the child was slapped for misbehaving then I would leave them be, but if the child was hit for no reason, I would scold the mother.

Eve Stephens but you probably won’t know what the reason is. It could have been the child’s “first offense” or maybe the child had been acting up all day or all week.

Comments on #2

- My favorite was #2 because it was cool to see new stuff about Korea that I had never heard of before. There's a lot of stuff I don't know about! (KOR507)

- My favorite was situation 2 because people gave their different opinions on what reminded them about the US and Korea. Nice to see things from other's point of view. (KOR507)

- I like #2 Korea/US Word association. I think it showed how we all view US and Korea from different perspectives because we all thought 3 different things when we associate US and Korea~ (KOR612)

- 저는 두번째, "2. word association: Korea, the USA "이 좋았습니다. 왜냐하면, 미국에서 자란 한국인으로서, 저희 같은 환경에서 자란 분들의 한국과 미국의 생각과 태도가 궁금했습니다. (KOR330)

Sample Responses II

KOR507

- If the child was slapped for misbehaving then I would leave them be, but if the child was hit for no reason, I would scold the mother.
- If I see a mother in the supermarket slap her child, I would further observe what the situation was about. I would of course be shocked as well.
- Slapped in the face? Slapped on the bum? Slapped on the shoulder? How hard? Hard enough to knock the kid to the ground? Hard enough to leave a bruise? Also, you don't know what the circumstances were. You're walking in on the tail end of things. You don't know what happened before all of it. There are too many questions with this one. My answer depends.
- I would go up to the lady and scold at her for hitting her child in public and shake my head.

KOR612

- spanking 같은 것이라면 아무 생각없이 지나갈 것 같아요, 학대 같은 것이라면 몰르까.
- 저는 이유를 생각 합니다. 그리고 제가 간섭할 일이 아닙니다.
- 저는 아이가 무엇을 잘못했다고 생각합니다.
- 저는 아이가 불쌍하다고 생각합니다.

KOR330

- 가볍게 팡팡 혼내는 수준이라면 그냥 지나친다. 학대라고 생각될 정도로 심한 수준이며 말린다.
- 가벼운 정도면 그냥 지나치지만 심하다고 생각되면 경찰에 신고하거나 슈퍼마켓 매니저에 알린다.

what south korea needs most is to end the war with the north. what the united states needs most is it's first woman president.

Jung Eun Yoon
in an ideal civilization, sure, but i don't think unification would be a very great idea with respect to our current circumstances. the likelihood that a communist and a republic nation to unite is basically next to none. whether they were once whole or not. just think about how the american government - a unified country itself is split between its parties. can you imagine how much worse it would be with north and south korea setting it out for who gets more power? nothing would get done and the entire government would be in a constant, giant flubder of sorts. i think it's best to leave things as they are for now and it should be our prevarative to get kim jong un to come to his senses.

Eva Stephens for me, ending the war does not equal unification. the war is technically still going on, with only an armistice acting as a ceasefire.
