ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to acknowledge, with thanks, the many people who helped make Shakespeare at Winedale possible in 2017. We want also to honor a dear friend we lost this year, Carolyn Townsend, whose support for the program inspired and sustained us for many years.

Many thanks to everyone at the Winedale Historical Center, including Beth, Natalie, David, Victor, and Pat, and to the wonderful Winedale cooks for their delicious meals.

Thanks to Maxine Lain for her sewing expertise, and to Renae Jackson for her outstanding assistance. Thanks also to Jonathan Forbes Vineyard and Nell McKeown for sewing room help. To Clayton Stromberger, for bringing students from the Outreach program to work with us, and to Lucy Junker for helping us with King Lear. Many thanks to Round Top Mercantile, Royer's Round Top Café, and the Festival-Institute at Round Top for their support and kindness. Continued thanks to Blue Bell and Mark Metts, for helping us to air-condition the barn.

Many thanks to Leslie and Cathy at Bird Song Cottage, for providing housing for James and Laurel, as well as for Katy Taylor. To Bill and Teresa Reynolds for care packages for the students. Thanks to Judy and Dick Perkins for their ongoing support for our program, and for providing the longhorn that the students have decorated. Thanks to Tony and Kay Scanapico for their continued support and help. Thanks to Dr. Mark Sicilio for a kind invitation to the students. Many thanks to all the former students who came to watch early performances and brought snacks and supplies. And to Laurel Loehlin, for her tireless help throughout the summer and for her love and care for all of us.

Thanks to our many friends at the University of Texas, including President Greg Fenves, Dean Randy Diehl, Chair Elizabeth Cullingford of the English Department, and Dr. Don Carleton of the Center for American History. To Cecilia Smith-Morris, Jené Gutierrez, Katie Stacy, and Donetta Dean-Gibbs of the English Department. Thanks to Liz Fisher, our wonderful Program Coordinator, and our invaluable administrative and outreach assistant Katy Taylor. Special thanks as always to Doc Ayres, for his vision in creating and sustaining Shakespeare at Winedale.

Shakespeare at Winedale is a program of the University of Texas Department of English that invites students and audiences to explore Shakespeare through performance. There are three distinct dimensions to Shakespeare at Winedale: the spring and summer classes for college students, the Outreach program, and Camp Shakespeare. The summer program is an academic course that involves the intensive study and performance of Shakespeare's plays. It is open (by application and interview) to students from all disciplines. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the converted barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale. For more information, please contact James Loehlin in the UT Department of English, e-mail Liz Fisher at lfisher@austin.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, 204 W 21st Street B5000, Austin, Texas 78712-1164.

SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE OUTREACH

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach is our Shakespeare-in-performance program for youth/elementary students. Every year, Outreach Coordinator Clayton Stromberger conducts workshops and residencies at several schools as well as a "Saturday Shakespeare" project at UT. Participants perform every year at the spring Winedale Festival of Play, and at the UT Children's Shakespeare Festival on campus. We also have a student organization, SHOUT, that supports our Outreach efforts. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at cstromberger@austin.utexas.edu.

CAMP SHAKESPEARE

Camp Shakespeare is a two-week residential camp for young people, ages 10-16, held in Round Top, with daily activity at Winedale. The Founding Director of Shakespeare at Winedale, James B. Ayres, directs the Camp, along with Robin Grace Thompson.

This year's students performed Love's Labour's Lost and The Winter's Tale. Camp Shakespeare accepts applications from candidates anywhere, in public, private, or home schools. Questions of any kind should be directed to Doc Ayres at jayres@cvctx.com.
