Shakespeare at Winedale is a program of the University of Texas Department of English that invites students and audiences to explore Shakespeare through performance. There are three distinct dimensions to Shakespeare at Winedale: the Spring and Summer classes for college students, the Outreach program, and Camp Shakespeare. The Summer program is an academic course that involves the intensive study and performance of Shakespeare's plays. It is open (by application and interview) to students from all disciplines. Students in the course spend the summer at the Winedale Historical Center, working seven days a week in the converted barn that serves as our theatre. Their experience culminates with public performances in July and August. There is also a spring semester version of Shakespeare at Winedale. For more information, please contact James Loehlin in the UT Department of English, e-mail Liz Fisher at lfisher@austin.utexas.edu, or write to Shakespeare at Winedale, 204 W 21st Street B5000, Austin, Texas 78712-1164.

SHAKESPEARE AT WINEDALE OUTREACH

Shakespeare at Winedale Outreach is our Shakespeare-in-performance program for elementary and middle school children. Every year, Clayton Stromberger and Katy Taylor conduct workshops and residencies at several schools as well as a "Saturday Shakespeare" project at UT. Participants perform every spring at the Winedale Festival of Play and at the UT Children's Shakespeare Festival on campus. We also have a student organization, SHOUT, that supports our Outreach efforts. For more information, please contact Clayton Stromberger at cstromberger@austin.utexas.edu.

CAMP SHAKESPEARE

Camp Shakespeare is a two-week residential camp for young people, ages 10-16, held in Round Top, with daily activity at Winedale. The Founding Director of Shakespeare at Winedale, James B. Ayres, directs the Camp, along with Robin Grace Soto. This year's students performed The Merchant of Venice and Hamlet. Camp Shakespeare accepts applications from candidates anywhere, in public, private, or home schools. Questions of any kind should be directed to Doc Ayres at jayres@cvctx.com.
